

Choice and affordability priorities for London Show visitors

ATE, organisers of ATEI and ICE, are presenting visitors with a wide choice of accommodation for the forthcoming shows (Earls Court Exhibition Centre, London, 24/25/26 January 2006), with no fewer than 23 recommended hotels and apartment facilities available.

The comprehensive list offers discounts of up to 59 per cent on published room rates and greater availability of 3-star hotels, with prices starting at £69 per night (EUR 102 / USD 121). In addition to the discounts specially negotiated for the shows' duration, some hotels are also offering early booking discounts as well as extra value deals for visitors wishing to extend their stay and incorporate a weekend leisure break.

The 2006 London Show Hotel Guide is available online at www.ateonline.co.uk/atei and www.ateonline.co.uk/ice and includes hotel descriptions, contact details, prices and specifications as well as the unique booking codes to secure the special discount rates.
