

Yggdrasil Gaming Invites you to join the party at London's Most Prestigious Address No.1 Park Lane

Yggdrasil Gaming Sponsoring party at the 10th International Gaming Awards Ceremony (IGA) on 6 February 2017 at the one of the capital's most prestigious addresses, InterContinental London Park Lane, in the heart of Mayfair. The Intercontinental Park Lane magnificent party room inspired by its location overlooking the Royal Parks. As always IGA party will include illustrious entertainment and remarkable networking with industry high flyers from around the globe.

Colin Thompson organizer of International Gaming Awards commented: „We are very pleased that Yggdrasil Gaming a provider of market-leading online and mobile casino games, has chosen to sponsor IGA drinks networking party and showcase their latest products in front of respected industry peers. A few years back Yggdrasil was a newcomer to the market when first joining IGA's good causes, we are delighted to see how big Yggdrasil expanded its business and become such highly regarded supplier of innovative products.

It is once again proves that IGA event not just the biggest charity Gala and global Awards ceremony, but the greatest business platform to introduce your product.“

The ceremony will take place on the 6 February 2017 in Intercontinental Park Lane Hotel in London.
