

Gran Casino de Castellón opened its doors

Gran Casino de Castellón opened its doors last week after several months of delay and a controversial location. Finally, the gambling venue was inaugurated in the port of La Plana capital city.

Orenes Franco Group has invested 20 million euros on a surface of more than 4,000 sqms. It has two French Roulettes, eight American Roulettes, three Black Jack tables, seven poker tables and a Baccarat one. On top of the space occupied by the casino, however, there is another room, a modern slot hall full of machines –up to 75.

Casino operators estimate that around 80,000 people will visit the casino annually. However, they are aware of the fact that the quantity of money that each of the customers leave is very variable.

In total, Castellón casino has generated 250 jobs, with young students working as croupiers. Although the official inauguration will take place on May 30th, the casino doors are already opened, as well as a convention center, a hall for events and shows, and three restaurants. The company expects 150,000 people to visit some of the complementary services.
