Novomatic Group of Companies Press Conference Invitation

With our best wishes for a Happy New Year 2012 we would like to invite you to continue with us the Novomatic Group's tradition of an Austrian Gaming Industries GmbH ICE pre-show Press Conference.

Once again we hope that we can help you get your trip to ICE off to a flying start by joining AGI at booth No. 3035 in Earls Court and be the first to see the diverse range of gaming products and solutions that are brand new for 2012 ... including, of course, the new products that we intentionally excluded from our pre-show press release! So you will get absolutely all the latest news directly from our management team while you enjoy fresh Austrian coffee and breakfast snacks.

On AGI's newly designed exhibition booth you will be briefed by, and have the chance to put your questions to, management representatives of AGI, Astra Games and Greentube Internet Entertainment Solutions GmbH.
